

As soon as I heard about the Do Not Call law I signed up immediately and it has been less stressful around my house, I would like to keep it this way. Telling them NO just doesn't work. I do not want to be bothered by these telemarketers. I also feel letting them into our homes is an invitation for scam artists. Please keep this law in tact, so I can keep my sanity in my own home.